Wild Boar Driven Hunts

October - March

The hunting area is situated at about 120 km to the South of Vienna on the border with Hungary. It is composed of two fenced reserves ideal for driven hunts for groups of 3 to 6 hunters.

It is one of few reserves in the world where 50 to 100 trophy wild boars can be harvested in two days hunt per group. The hunt is organized with the assistance of the hunting staff and dogs. Red deers, fallow deers and mouflons with large trophies can also be hunted in this reserve.

Accommodation is provided in a typical Austrian Gasthof in the vicinities of the reserve.
