

- International Safaris Corp. -

Hunting Worldwide Since 1986

- MEXICO -

Sonora

The Sonora desert, in the North of Mexico, is the hunting area where great big game trophies can be found, such as the Mule deer of the desert, the small Coues deer, the White tailed deer and the most famous trophy in the world, the Desert sheep.

The hunting area is a planeland covered in typical desert vegetation, while the Desert Sheep hunt is done on low mountains that raise in the middle of the desert.

Rates:

10/8 hunting days including Desert sheep	USD 50.000
8/6 hunting days including Mule deer	USD 9.500
8/6 hunting days including Coues deer	USD 5.500
Javelina	USD 450

Rates Include:

All transfers from Hermosillo to Sonora, full board accommodation in the base camp during the hunt until shooting or wounding the animal, assistance of a local gamekeeper, skinning and boiling of the trophies.

Rates Don't Include:

Government permits for the hunt of single animals: Mule and Coues deer USD 375, Javelina and small game USD 225, owner permits for the deer from USD

info@safariinternational.com * www.safariinternational.com

Srdja Dimitrijevic Tel: +39 335 6326899

We Work For You!

1375 to USD 1525, extra hunting days after the shooting or wounding of the animal, use of weapons and ammunition of the reserve, tips, drinks and gratuities.

