Deer in Roaring Season

September - October

The hunting area that we would like to present to you for hunting European deer in roaring season is the famous Krasnij Les (The red forest) close to Krasnodar, the area carries its name from the Soviet Union, and it holds the largest deer in Europe in natural conditions. In fact, last year a deer of 249 points, 14.5 kg was taken in this famous reserve in completely natural conditions.

This reserve can only offer a very limited number of licenses annually. Hunting is done in roaring season, waiting and stalking in mid September. Lodging is provided in the hunting house within the reserve.
